Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Weidemeier?

DELEGATE WEIDEMEIER: Mr. President, on my desk today are several memorandum concerning delegate proposals. Some of them indicate the author and others do not. I think it might be well that if every outside organization or every delegate who has memorandum put on our desk concerning a proposal that the proposal indicate who is submitting the memorandum.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Weidemeier, I did not understand a word you said. You said some of them indicate, and I lost the rest.

DELEGATE WEIDEMEIER: Some of them indicate the sponsor of the memorandum material, and others do not. I think it might be well for all of us to know whether the information on a memorandum is submitted by a delegate or whether it is submitted maybe by some outside organization.

THE PRESIDENT: I think the suggestion is an excellent one. The memoranda submitted by delegates in conjunction with proposals which they submit are designated as memoranda accompanying delegate proposal number so and so. That will be an indication that the delegate or delegates sponsoring the proposal are the authors of the memoranda. I think, however, to avoid any misunderstanding, we will try to have some definite indication of authorship on any that emanate from the staff.

Other papers put on your desks we would have no control over. If there is any question as to origin or authorship of any such paper, I think any delegate would be free to ask on the floor.
